15 YEARS HELPING CLIENTS ACHIEVE SUCCESS

We have been providing essential corporate IT services since 1997.

We have a wide client base: from big corporate PLCs to telecommunications manufacturers and networks, Queen's Award winning exporters to bright new start-ups.

Website design and development is our flagship service, but it doesn't stop there.

Xanda offer app and software development, office networking, technical support, branding, identity and marketing services. We can cater to your print design needs, create and manage your entire brand as well as helping to put together smooth, professional presentations.

Xanda take pride in developing close relationships with each of our clients, taking time to understand their business, customers, processes and systems.
